CAPTAIN CANOT, A UTHOR OF THE GREAT BOOK JUST BE-IN & PUBLISHED, SPEAKS OF HAMPTON'S

GREAT OURS OF RESUMATISM CONTRACTED UNDER TROPICAL CLIMATES. BALTIMORE, Md., June 4, 1864. Mr. Stockbridge, of the Fountain Hotel, Light street,

Baltimore—
Dear Sir: Being on the point of leaving the city,
I avail myself of a few idle moments to thank you kindly for the medicine you sent me, and which has restored me to the use of my limbs. I beg you to send me four bottles more, to carry on my voyage.

Since I had the fortune to use Dr. Hampton's Vege

LABARRE would respectfully inform the public that he has opened a Shop at the corner C table Tincture my confidence is so strong that, in gratitude o the proprietors of said medicine, I beg you to present my respects to them, and induce them to make it more publicly known as a sure Rheumatic cure. Having called on me on the 19th of April last, and seen me prostrated on my bed. useless in all my limbs, you can appreciate nearly as well as myself the prompt relief I received from Dr. flampton's Tincture, and I am positive had it not been for your strong and forcible recommendations I should still have been in bed.

It is really a pity this specific should not be approved by medical men, and like all patent drugs it hould suffer the imputation the public generally give to such preparations. I myself, who was always opposed to a patented specific, took this medicine with reductance, and without confidence in it, and it was only through your disinterested, friendly recommendations, and my critical situation that induced me to try this really beneficial Vegetable

You may inform Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray that they are at liberty to make use of my name in the support of the good effects of Dr. Hampton's egetable Tincture, as it has cured me in five weeks of a chronic Inflammatory Rheumatism, contracted under tropical climates, and of seven years' periodical duration. I have only used three bottles, and find that even the deformed parts of my hands are fast returning to their former natural appearance

I have been under tue treatment of several phy-Sicians in London and Paris, without any apparent benefit; also, while in New York, having tried the Thompsonian and Homospathic remedies, after having been tormented with galvanic be teries, cold and aromatic baths, and hundreds of internal and external medicines, all to no effect, I am, so far, oured by this Hampton's Vege able Tineture only. Therefore, my dear sir, accept of the assurance of my gratitude, and believe me your well wisher. THOMAS CANOT.

REV. VERNON ESKRIDGE, U. S. N. PORTSMOUTH, VA, Aug. 18, 1851. Mr. J. E. Boush-cear sir: While I am, in generai, opposed to patent medicines, cander compels me state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vegetable Tinoture. For several months past I have used it in my family; and in dyspepsia, loss of appetite, dissinces, and general de-bility, with entire success. So far as my experience exten is, therefore, I take pleasure in recommend-ing it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient remedy. I am, respectfully, yours, VERNON ESERIDOR. Chaplain, United States Navy.

On the 23d of that month we reached Acapulco, situated in the department of south from the capital, and about 3.900 miles sailing distance from New York. We spent a very pleasant day at Acapulco. The ship, on our arrival. was immediately surrounded by natives, in boats, offering all kinds of fruit for sale. and ready to carry passengers on shore Native boys-little fellows about the size of D-, swam around, diving down, very deep, catching dimes, which

Leaving that port, we passed the island where the ill-fated steamer Independence was lost, with so many persons on board, not long since; and also came in view of the place where the Winfield Scott was wrecked, and arrived at the city of San Francisco on the morning of the 2d instant, about 2 o'clock. Just before coming to anchor, we ran foul of a brig, and smashed considerable of our starboard side, knocking the barber shop all to pieces, and knocking the bowsprit

Shortly after my arrival I called at the residence of Senator Gwin. I participated in his elegant hospitality. His lady is one of the most accomplished of her sex, and presides over his establishment in such a manner as to win the regard of the crowd of friends that frequent his house.

I presume, ere this reaches you, that the news of the dreadful catastrophe to the Yankee Blade will have been telegraphed. It is supposed that the vessel was run upon the rocks purposely. By others it is said that the "Shoulder Strikers," who were on board to the number of fifty or sixty, altered the compass that they might have an opportunity of robbing the baggage of passengers. It is reported that some were murdered others drowned, and one hundred and fifty supposed to be lost.

"Mirth and motion prolong life."- Abernethy. Human life is a mere dance—the nursery a bawl-room! Old maids and bachelors, for want of partners, are compelled to exhibit in a pas seul. Knavery practises the shuffle, while pride, prudence, and experience, are professors of the art of cutting. Courage teaches the en avant, and discretion ("the better part of valor") the "en arriere." Some are happy in their choice of "partners;" while many are doomed to go through the whole "dance" with the dowerless and disagreeable Mis-Fortunes and Mis-

Chances. The ambitious and would be-great are continually struggling to show off in a particular "set;" but, notwithstanding the pains they take in their "steps, Mexico, about 175 miles nearly due frequently experience the mortification of a dos-a-dos, when they are anxiously exerting all their efforts for a smiling

These are the "ups and downs" of the dance." The "lords of creation" (with few exceptions) are very awkward and ungainly; while "lovely woman" is most generally perfect in the "figure."

Love is generally "master of the ceremonies;" but, being rather pur-blind. makes the most ridiculous mistakes in introducing "partners;" and, although Avarice (who officiates in the higher circles) is lynx-eyed. he commits as many errors in "coupling" the company as his coadjutor.

Hope illuminates the "festive scene," and away they bound on the "light fanmiddle-up again !-til! Time steps in, and throws a damp upon their merriment-the piper stops for "want of breath," and—the dance ends!

THE OLD NEGRO'S LOGIC.-A clergyman asked an old servant his reasons for believing in the existence of a God. "Sir," says he, "I see one man get sick. The doctor comes to him, gives him medicine. the next day he is better; he keeps on till he gets about his business. Another man gets sick like the first one, the doctor comes to see him; he gives him the same sort of medicine : it does him no good; gets worse; gives him more; but he gets worse all the time till he dies. Now that man's time to die had come, and all the doctors in the world couldn't cure him. "One year I work in the cornfield. plow deep, dig up grass, and make nothing but nubbins. Next year work the same way; the rain and dew comes, and makes a crop. "I have been here going hard upon fifty years. Every day since I have been in this world I see the sun rise in the East and set in the West. The North star stands where it did the first time I ever saw it; the seven stars in Job's cofnever turn out. It ain't so with man's works. He makes clocks and watches: they run well for a time, but they get out of fix and stand stock still. But the sun, moon, and stars keep on the same way all the while. There is a power which makes one man man die, and another get well-that sends the rain and keeps everything in motion." What a beautiful comment is here furnished by an unlettered African, on the language of the Psalmist: "The Heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament showeth his handiwork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge."

GAMING-HOUSE PROFITS. - A letter, in the Wolner Zeitung, gives an account of the profits of the gaming bank at Hamburg, one of the most celebrated of the German watering places, at which gaming is allowed by the government. The shares in the bank are of the amount of five hundred fforing each, and on these the following dividends have been paid: In September, 1847, a dividend of 44 florins; in 1848, two dividends-one of 55 florins, and the other of 59 florins; in 1851, two dividends—one of 111 florins. and the other of 72 florins; in 1852, two dividends-one of 72 florins, and the other of 37 florins; in 1853, two dividends—one of 84 florins, and the other of 100 florins; and in March, 1854, one dividend of 133 florins, another being due in September. This, however, is only a part of the profit made out of the frequenters of these German resorts. Before the shareholders receive anything. the government receives a large rent from them, as its shares of the plunder; and all the expenses of the costly estabments in which the gaming takes place have to be defrayed.

JAIL AMUSEMENTS IN INDIANA .-- According to the Lafayette (Ind.) Journal, the prisoners in the jail at that place have a jolly good time every day. It says:

"Through the kindness of the jailor they have been provided with a violin, and one of the number being a good player they this city with Mr. Johnston, cousin of have frequent cotillon parties or stag dances, which have the advantage of being 'select,' without that stiffness and formality peculiar to such entertainments in 'higher circles.' They have recently made a valuable acquisition to their number. An itinerant showman, who had fallen into the clutches of the law, and, owing to the tightness of the money market, was unable to pay the cost, and was caged to satisfy the insulted dignity of the State. He got up an exhibition the first evening of his incarceration, and has continued them ever since, to the amusement of his companions."

No RE-Collection. - A certain linen draper, waited upon a lady for the amount A poor fellow here in town, who was of an article purchased at his shop. She endeavored to remind him that she had paid when he called some time ago: he declared he had no remembrance of the circumstance; on which she produced his receipt. He then asked pardon, and said, "I am sorry I did not recollect it." To which the lady replied. " I sincerely believe you are sorry you did not re-col-
